

AGENDA

Higher Education Leadership Conference on Advancing Public Scholarship in Education
American Education Research Association
Marriott Marquis Hotel, Level 4, Independence, Salon D
April 7, 2016

- 7:30 Breakfast and Registration
- 8:00 Welcome and Introductions to the Conference
Felice J. Levine, Executive Director, AERA and Hardin Coleman, Boston University and Chair of Consortium of University and Research Institutions
- 8:15 Framing the Topic - What Do we Mean by Public Scholarship?
Jeannie Oakes, AERA President
- 8:30 Exploring the Topic in Small Group Discussions
Moderator: Kevin Welner, University of Colorado Boulder
- 9:15 Effective Communication for Various Publics - Building on What We Know and Do
Moderator: David Monk, Pennsylvania State University
- Effective Presence and Relationship Building With State and Federal Policy Leaders – Patricia Gándara, University of California, Los Angeles
 - Effective Engagement in Policy and Legal Spheres – Gary Orfield, University of California, Los Angeles
 - Effective Voice in R&D and Research Policy Spheres – Deborah Ball, University of Michigan
 - Effective Public Communication Using Broadcast and Social Media – Shaun Harper, University of Pennsylvania
- 10:30 Break
- 10:45 Partnerships for Building and Using Knowledge
Moderator: Hardin Coleman, Boston University
- Research-practice Partnerships – Cynthia Coburn, Northwestern University
 - Building Community Schools — Marcelo Suárez-Orozco, University of California, Los Angeles
 - Community-based Engagement – Ben Kirshner, University of Colorado Boulder
- 11:45 Vignettes on Deaning for Public Scholarship
Moderator: Glenn E. Good, University of Florida
- Diana Hess, University of Wisconsin, Madison
 - Donna L. Wiseman, University of Maryland, College Park
 - Leslie Fenwick, Howard University

NOTE: The format of the conference emphasizes brief opening comments in each session with an emphasis on group discussion and exchange

12:15 Luncheon (adjacent room)

1:00 Achieving Public Scholarship through ED-Talks

Moderator: Felice J. Levine, AERA

- Early Care and Education: Research that Informs Policy – Steven Barnett, Rutgers University
- How Students Learn to Read and Write Complex Texts for Success Beyond Schooling – Elizabeth Moje, University of Michigan
- Reducing Risks for Young Children and Supporting Their Families – Vivian Gadsden, University of Pennsylvania

1:30 The Vantage of Higher Education and Public-Private Foundation Leaders

Moderator: Gerald Sroufe, AERA

- Higher Education Leaders – Suzanne Ortega, Council of Graduate Schools
- Private Foundation World – Vivian Tseng, William T. Grant Foundation
- Federal Agency – Joan Ferrini-Mundy, National Science Foundation

2:30 A Conversation about What Counts as Public Scholarship Building Research-Meaningful Metrics.
Moderator: Robert Floden, Michigan State University

- City University of New York's Public Science Project – Jessie Daniels, Hunter College and The Graduate Center, CUNY
- Response: Kevin Kumashiro, University of San Francisco
- Response: Mary Kalantzis, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign

3:30 Break

3:45 Opportunities for Developing and Valuing Public Scholarship

Moderator: Wanda Blanchett, Rutgers University

- Capacity Building in Doctoral Research Programs – Camilla Benbow, Vanderbilt University
- Valuing Public Scholarship, Incentives and Tenure – Harold Levine, University of California - Davis

4:30 Strategic Approaches to Public Scholarship—Next Steps for Promoting Public Scholarship in Higher Education

Moderator: Jeannie Oakes, AERA President

- A Dean's Perspective – Pam Grossman, University of Pennsylvania
- An Innovator's Perspective – Harry Boyte, Augsburg College

4:55 Concluding Note – AERA's Perspective and Looking Ahead

Felice J. Levine, AERA

5:00 Adjournment to Social Hour